Paris, June 24. Yeſterday the Royal Council was held for the firſt Time at Verſailles; at which were preſent the King, the Duke Regent, the Duke of Bourbon, the Prince of Conti, the Cardinal du Bois, the Keeper of the Seals, the Comptroller-General of the Finances, M. Fagon, and M. Peletier de la Houſſaye. The Marqueſs de Ruffé, his Majeſty's Sub-Governour, is made Governour of Maubeuge, in the Room of M. de St. Fremont Lieutenant-General lately deceaſed. Letters from Rome of the 30th paſt adviſe, that the Affair of the Pope's giving the Inveſtiture of the Kingdom of Naples to the Emperour was finally adjuſted: The Pope's Bull touching that Inveſtiture had ſome Days before been printed in the Apoſtolical Printing-Office, but had been communicated to none but the Cardinal d'Althan, who had ſent it by an Expreſs to Vienna. It was to be made publick in a Conſiſtory the Beginning of June; after which Publication the Cardinal d'Althan (as Viceroy of Naples) was to dine publickly with the Pope (as is uſual on the like Occaſion,) when the Pope being ſeated in his Throne raiſed on three Steps, the Cardinal was to take his Seat on a Stool at another Table over againſt him. The three following Days the Cardinal was to be entertained at Caſtel-Gandolfo by the Officers of the Pope's Houſehold; and on the 12th of June was to imbark at Nettuno on board the Neapolitan Gallies for Naples, to take upon him the Viceroyſhip of that Kingdom. The Conſtable Colonna having been appointed by the Emperour to make the uſual Preſent of a Pad to the Pope on Occaſion of the ſaid Inveſtiture, was making great Preparations for performing that Ceremony on the Eve of the Feſtival of St. Peter. Theſe Letters add, that on the 29th of May Don Joſeph Herrera Secretary of Spain reſiding at Rome, received Letters by an Expreſs from the King his Maſter, which he communicated the next Day to the Pope's Secretary of State; in which his Catholick Majeſty made new Inſtances to the Pope, that the Proceſs againſt Cardinal Alberoni might be carried on with the utmoſt Vigour.
